

Please do not allow further consolidation of media outlet ownership. The public needs to see and hear as great a variety of information and entertainment as possible, and from as great a number of sources as possible, in every media market.